Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Evangelist John introduces us, today, to the very core of our faith in the Eucharist. Jesus presents himself as the Bread of Life. For the Israelites, manna was the bread that God sent from heaven to sustain them in the desert and help them survive until they reached the promised land. Therefore, when Jesus says to them, "I am the Bread of Life (I AM = GOD)," it will remind them of the name that God revealed to Moses. This means that the divine nature of Jesus, clearly expressed in bread as sustenance, is to be SPIRITUAL NOURISHMENT for the journey of life, until reaching the promised land (Heaven). Therefore, our spiritual life without this nourishment becomes a body walking through life weak and exposed to the death of the spirit in its human reality. Jesus as the BREAD OF LIFE nourishes us to the point of not only strengthening us, but also giving full meaning to our existence; nourishment that transcends our physical life to lead us to the eternal. May we receive it today with the secure faith that Jesus comes to you to not let you die, but rather to live eternally.

God blesses each one of you.

1 Reyes 19:4-8; Efesios 4:30-5:2; Juan 6:41-51

Salmo 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

El Evangelista Juan nos introduce hoy en lo más central de nuestra fe en la Eucaristía. Jesús se presenta como el Pan de Vida. Para los israelitas el Maná era el pan que Dios envió desde el cielo para que pudieran alimentarse en el desierto y poder sobrevivir hasta llegar a la tierra prometida. Por eso cuando Jesús les dice: Yo soy el Pan de Vida (YO SOY = DIOS) les recordará el nombre que Dios reveló a Moisés. Esto significa que la naturaleza divina de Jesús, expresada claramente en el pan como alimento, es ser ALIMENTO ESPIRITUAL, para el camino de la vida hasta llegar a la tierra prometida (El cielo). Por lo tanto, nuestra vida espiritual sin ese alimento se convierte en un cuerpo que camina por la vida débil y expuesto a la muerte del espíritu en su realidad humana. Jesús como PAN DE VIDA, nos nutre al punto de no solo fortalecernos, sino también de dar sentido pleno a nuestro existir. Alimento que trasciende nuestra vida física para llevarnos a la eterna. Que hoy lo recibamos con la fe segura de que Jesús llega a ti para no dejarte morir, más bien para vivir eternamente.

Dios les bendice a cada uno.

Salmos 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Queridos Irmãos e Irmãs,

O Evangelista João nos introduz hoje ao cerne da nossa fé na Eucaristia. Jesus se apresenta como o Pão da Vida. Para os israelitas, o maná era o pão que Deus enviou do céu para sustentá-los no deserto e ajudá-los a sobreviver até chegarem à terra prometida. Portanto, quando Jesus lhes diz: "Eu sou o Pão da Vida (EU SOU = DEUS)", isso lhes lembrará o nome que Deus revelou a Moisés. Isso significa que a natureza divina de Jesus, claramente expressa no pão como sustento, é ser ALIMENTO ESPIRITUAL para a jornada da vida até alcançar a terra prometida (o Céu). Portanto, nossa vida espiritual sem esse alimento se torna um corpo que caminha pela vida fraco e exposto à morte do espírito em sua realidade humana. Jesus, como PÃO DA VIDA, nos nutre a ponto de não apenas nos fortalecer, mas também de dar pleno sentido à nossa existência. Alimento que transcende nossa vida física para nos levar à eternidade. Que o recebamos hoje com a fé segura de que Jesus vem a você para não deixá-lo morrer, mas sim para viver eternamente.

Que Deus abençoe a cada um de vocês

No. 4 Constitutional Amendment

Amendment to Limit Government Interference with Abortion

No law shall prohibit, penalize, delay, or restrict abortion before viability or when necessary to protect the patient's health, as determined by the patient's healthcare provider.

This amendment does not change the Legislature's constitutional authority to require notification to a parent or guardian before a minor has an abortion.

The little-known origin story of the monstrance used at the National Eucharistic Congress

CV NEWS FEED // The four-foot-tall ornate monstrance used to expose the Eucharist at the National Eucharistic Congress last week reportedly has a little-known origin story rooted in Mexico and another Eucharistic procession that occurred in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in 2023.

According to Angelus News, the Archdiocese's newspaper, the organizers of the Congress originally saw Archbishop José Gomez use the same model of the 20-pound monstrance during a March 2023 Eucharistic procession in San Gabriel, California.

When the organizers decided that the Congress should use a replica of the archdiocesan monstrance, they were directed to Fr. Miguel Angel Ruiz, a Los Angeles priest with roots in Guadalajara, Mexico.

Fr. Ruiz said he owns the same monstrance, which was the exact one he used to pray before at a convent in Guadalajara that he often visited as a seminarian. When he was ordained a priest in 2019, the sisters at the convent bought the monstrance and gifted it to him.

The monstrance was made by a liturgical store in Guadalajara, to which Fr. Ruiz directed the organizers to order a replica.

Angelus News reported that the monstrance was rush-ordered, as Pope Francis had agreed to bless it at the Vatican only a few weeks later.

From Guadalajara to Tijuana, then to San Diego and Washington, D.C., the monstrance made it in time and headed across the Atlantic Ocean in June 2023 with Bishop Cozzens and a Congress delegation to meet the pope for his blessing.

When Bishop Cozzens prayed before the Eucharist in front of thousands in Indianapolis' Lucas Oil Stadium on the opening night of the Congress, he quoted an exhortation given to the organizers by Pope Francis the same day he blessed the monstrance.

"In the Eucharist, we encounter the one who gave everything for us, Who sacrificed Himself in order to give us life, who loved us to the end," Pope Francis said at the time. "We become credible witnesses to the joy and transforming beauty of the gospel, only when we recognize that the love we celebrate in this Sacrament cannot be kept to ourselves but demands to be shared with all."

La historia del origen poco conocido de la Custodia utilizada en el Congreso Eucarístico Nacional

NOTICIAS DE CV // La custodia ornamentada de cuatro pies de alto utilizada para exponer la Eucaristía en el Congreso Eucarístico Nacional la semana pasada supuestamente tiene una historia de origen poco conocida que tiene sus raíces en México y en otra procesión eucarística que tuvo lugar en la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles en 2023.

Según Angelus News, el periódico de la Arquidiócesis, los organizadores del Congreso originalmente vieron al Arzobispo José Gómez usar el mismo modelo de la custodia de 20 libras durante una procesión eucarística en marzo de 2023 en San Gabriel, California.

Cuando los organizadores decidieron que el Congreso debería usar una réplica de la custodia arquidiocesana, fueron dirigidos al P. Miguel Ángel Ruiz, un sacerdote de Los Ángeles con raíces en Guadalajara, México.

P. Ruiz dijo que posee la misma custodia, que era exactamente la que usaba para rezar antes en un convento en Guadalajara que visitaba a menudo como seminarista. Cuando fue ordenado sacerdote en 2019, las hermanas del convento compraron la custodia y se la regalaron.

La custodia fue hecha por una tienda litúrgica en Guadalajara, a la que el P. Ruiz dirigió a los organizadores para que encargaran una réplica.

Angelus News informó que la custodia fue ordenada con urgencia, ya que el Papa Francisco había acordado bendecirla en el Vaticano solo unas semanas después.

Desde Guadalajara a Tijuana, luego a San Diego y Washington, D.C., la custodia llegó a tiempo y se dirigió a través del Océano Atlántico en junio de 2023 con el obispo Cozzens y una delegación del Congreso para reunirse con el Papa para su bendición.

Cuando el obispo Cozzens rezó ante la Eucaristía frente a miles de personas en el Lucas Oil Stadium de Indianápolis en la noche de apertura del Congreso, citó una exhortación dada a los organizadores por el Papa Francisco el mismo día que bendijo la custodia.

"En la Eucaristía, encontramos a Aquel que dio todo por nosotros, que se sacrificó para darnos vida, que nos amó hasta el final", dijo el Papa Francisco en ese momento. "Nos convertimos en testigos creíbles de la alegría y la belleza transformadora del Evangelio, solo cuando reconocemos que el amor que celebramos en este Sacramento no puede guardarse para nosotros mismos, sino que exige ser compartido con todos".
